Organizations

The Student Council

THE STUDENT COUNCIL under the leadership of Mr. Higginbottom has taken on many new duties this year. With money obtained from the selling of candy at football games and a collection, money belts have been purchased for members of the school who have entered the armed forces. The council also bought a service flag. With the entrance of each boy into the service, a star to represent him was placed on this flag. Again this year the Student Council sponsored several interesting assembly programs. One of the most interesting of these was the program presented by the F. B. I. The officers for the year 1942-1943 were: President, Daniel Prelack; Vice-President, Phyllis Burns; Secretary, Leone Halliday; and Treasurer, Warren Wettlaufer.

AT THE OUTSET of the school year, the following officers were elected in the Junior Red Cross: President, Bob Fouhy; Vice-President, Virginia Graham; Secretary, Joan Sibley; Treasurer, Dick Flamand; and the advisers Miss Richmond and Miss Woodruff.

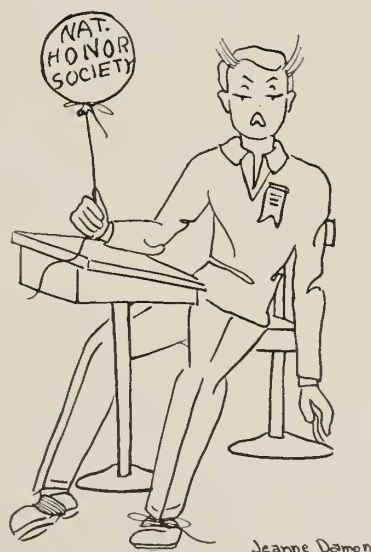

The activities of the club were very successful. Things started with a bang when the annual drive exceeded its quota. The twenty-five children greatly appreciated and enjoyed the Christmas party given by the organization for their benefit. Practically everyone in the High School was seen in the corridors with one of the novelty pencils sold by the club during the March campaign. Thus the students can join the club members in saying "We Serve."

National Honor Society

UNDER the direction of Mr. Meyers, the National Honor Society has completed another successful season. The officers for the year were: President, Joan Willander; Vice-President, Don Learned; Secretary, Lois Fish; and Treasurer, Betsy Houser. Other members of the society were: Jean Silk, Evelyn Smart, Ruth Berry, Peggy Sturgis, Joan Sullivan, Shirley La Fortune, Marion Schinkel, Mariana McLaughlin, David Walker, Isabel Kelleher, Terese Hughes, Jean MacCauley, and Katherine Turner. During the year Don Learned, David Walker, Lois Fish and Mariana McLaughlin, left for other schools or the armed forces.

In addition to setting the standard for scholarship, service, character, and leadership, the association helped pupils who had suffered long absences cover the material they had missed.

The Dramatic Club

THE DRAMATIC CLUB under the direction of Mr. MacCloskey, is one of the largest and most active clubs in the school. This year a new form of initiation has been introduced; each member desiring admission is required to perform before the club. Many of the programs presented by guest speakers have been open to all students. The new pins worn by the members have attracted a great deal of favorable attention in the school. Interest in dramatic art has been aroused among the members by attendance of public performances. Under the able leadership of Robert Tevalof, President; Peggy Sturgis, Vice-President; and Connie Del Duke, Secretary-Treasurer, the club has progressed considerably during the past year.

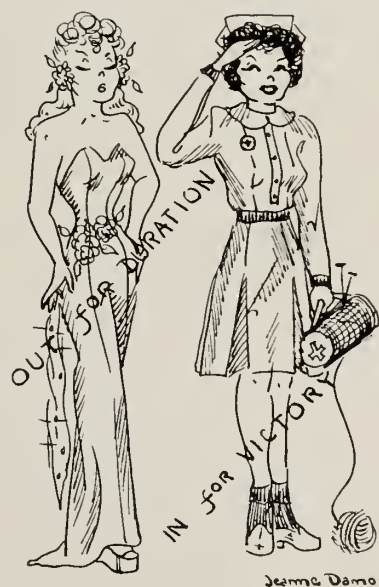

The Belmontian Club

THE BELMONTIAN CLUB has always stood for good character and commendable scholarship; to be a member signifies leadership and good citizenship. Throughout the year Belmontians have lived up to the standards. By the purchase of a one hundred dollar War Bond, a contribution to the Red Cross, and sponsorship of a serviceman's dance—we have tried to do our share.

Under the capable leadership of this year's officers: Louise Lynch, Dorothy Whiting, Isabelle Kelleher, and Nancy Ahlquist the club has had another pleasant and profitable season.

Among other interesting programs, the club was entertained by Mrs. Anton de Haas who spoke on Army nurses and Mrs. Baker whose subject was "Personality and the Girl."

Jeanne Damon

The Latin Club

“THE furtherance of an appreciation and clearer understanding of Roman culture and literature” is the purpose of the club. The officers and many of the procedures of the organization correspond to those of the ancient Roman government. For entertainment, the club had many interesting speakers and a few programs presented by the members themselves. The Latin Club has certainly lived up to its name, “Summa” (meaning the highest), during the past year due to the cooperation of its members and the commendable work of its advisers, Miss Steuerwald and Miss Noreen, and the following officers: Consuls, Paul Elliot and Julia Roper; Quaestor Tabularum, Joan Madden; Quaestor Aerarii, Betty Keegan; Censors, Evelyn Smart and Nancy Davis; Aediles, Isabel Kelleher, Carl Schmalz, Joan Probst, and Ruth Coombs.

The French Club

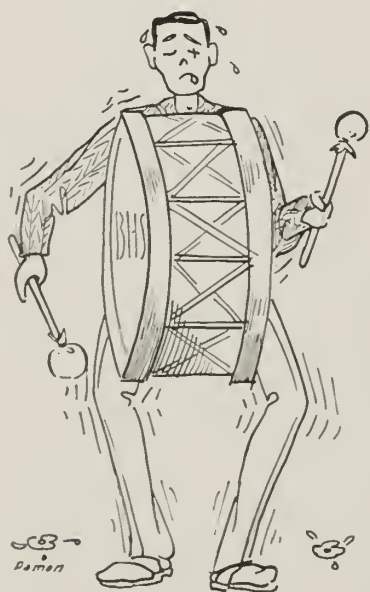

THE FIFTH YEAR of the French Club came to another successful conclusion. With a membership of over 140, the club had an active year. The chief events included a lecture in French on the Free French Movement, a joint meeting with the Latin Club, an interview with a French officer, and an illustrated lecture. The club provided opportunities not only for entertainment but also for a better understanding of France, its people, and its tongue.

The officers for the past year were: President, Dorothy Elkind; Vice-President, Joan Willander; Secretary, Lolita Laveaga; and Treasurer, Robert Kennerly. The success of "Le Cercle Francais" is due chiefly to the leadership of Miss Bridey, its faculty adviser.

The Band

THE SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL BAND is a Musical Service organization which appears at many school and community functions throughout the year.

This year the band has appeared at football games, rallies, and at the annual May concert. They have also turned out each month, in co-operation with the Belmont Home Front Committee, to give a send-off to the boys who are leaving for camp.

In the absence of Lt. (j.g.) Warren S. Freeman, the band this year is under the direction of Walter M. Smith.

The Orchestra

THE SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL ORCHESTRA is another of the Service organizations sponsored by the Music Department. It appears for School and community functions during the school year.

Among the appearances of the Orchestra this year was the Memorial Service, given by the Belmont Home Front Committee and dedicated to the Belmont men who have given their lives in World War II.

In the absence of Lt. (j. g.) Warren S. Freeman the orchestra this year is under the direction of Walter M. Smith.

The Bookworms Club

THE BOOKWORMS CLUB, sponsored by Miss Verna Ames, was organized in 1940 for the purpose of making available to its members the best in modern literature. Since that time it has grown so that now it is one of the major clubs of the school.

During the month of March the club sponsored a poster contest. The winner of the first prize was Marion Thomas; second prize, Robert Ahearn; honorable mention, Claire Verdone, Jean Harding, Jean McNaughton, Mary Diamond and Robert Hopkins; the most original poster, Rocco Bruno.

Fifteen of the members of the club have joined the armed forces since September.

The members who have read the greatest number of books for the year are Frances Patnode and Richard Palm.

The club's officers were: Betty Stone, Joseph Curley, Barbara Walsh, and William Flynn.

The Spanish Club

THE SPANISH CLUB has completed another successful year under the leadership of Ralph Coon, President; Joseph Campbell, Vice-President; Jean MacIver, Secretary; and John Hill, Treasurer. The activities of the club were guided and supervised by Miss Dornette and Mr. Solano, the faculty advisers.

This year the club celebrated Pan-American Day by holding the initiation of new members. At a later meeting, an educational movie on South America was enjoyed by the members.

Besides the regular program of events, Spanish games and songs have increased the interest in the language itself, and the members all hope that the future "Conquistadores" will have years as enjoyable as theirs. "Seguir Adelante."

A Cappella Choir

THE THIRD SEASON of the A Cappella Choir was successful under the direction of Miss Ida Marie Bunting, who replaced Mr. Freeman in this activity when he joined the Navy.

The choir appeared at the service held at the High School in honor of Belmont men in the service who have been reported missing or dead and in the Memorial Day program. As in past years, a small group from the choir visited all the schools at Christmas-time presenting a program of Carols. The second Christmas Concert was given by the choir shortly before Christmas and was pronounced a success. The choir enjoyed its work and hopes that it may become larger and be able to do more when peace returns.

The Camera Club

THE CAMERA CLUB, advised this year by our new teacher, Mr. French, had a very successful year. The aim of the members of the club was to achieve perfection in the developing and enlarging of the pictures which they took. The students spent many enjoyable extra-curricular hours of activity working in the dark-room, which they themselves helped to equip, and afterward discussing with fellow members the results of their work.

The interest of others in the club lay primarily in getting new and original "shots," and it is to these faithful pupils that we owe most of the candid pictures in our yearbook.

However, no matter what the interest of the individual member, everyone worked together in every club enterprise, making a well organized and interesting club.

Football Team

*A*LTHOUGH the Red and Blue gridsters had only an average season, bright spots punctuated the schedule. The game with Maynard was called off because Maynard had to harvest apples. The boys played well against Weymouth, but bowed to superior forces. The following week Belmont defeated Fitchburg 14-12. The next game saw our defeat by Arlington. The highspot of the season was the brilliant win over Brookline when the boys really went to town against formidable opponents.

Soccer Team

UNDER the brilliant leadership of Captain Dick Luetters, Belmont High's soccer squad had its most successful team of recent years. The boys made up in fight what they lacked in experience. After losing the first two games Belmont slapped the proud alumni for the initial win of the year. From there on the team was invincible except for a lose to the State Champs from Medford.

Boys' Basketball

FEBRUARY 19TH wound up a lukewarm basketball season for the Belmont High Hoopsters. Led by Co-Captains Bill Flynn and Art Carlson, this young squad had plenty of spunk, and many of our games were only lost by a point or two. There were many seniors on the team this year, but Coach Wenner had an excellent opportunity to season his juniors, so we are looking forward to a better record next year.

On March 12th, the faculty took on the team. It was all in fun, of course, but the boys gained their most decisive win of the year.

Girls' Basketball

THE BASKETBALL TEAM had its best record in many, many seasons, defeating strong teams from Winchester, Arlington, Malden, Lexington, Concord and Melrose. We lost only to Watertown, a close game, and to Medford, local champions for years.

Much credit is due to Jean Macaulay, Stella Femino, Peggy Carroll and Kay Comeau, who so successfully employed the new zone-guarding system instituted by Coach Cleary last year.

And these are the forwards who contributed to this year's victories—Eileen Foley (highest scorer), Marion Macaulay, Nancy Casey, Jane Drisko and Nancy Lane.

The girls on this year's junior varsity show great promise, so we expect just as excellent a record next season. Receiving j. v. letters are Eleanor Greehan, Alice Porter, Marion Marsh, Mary Jane Cumerford, Betty O'Brien, Mary Flanagan, Leah Garfin and Florence Azzone.

Hockey Team

THE HOCKEY TEAM had undoubtedly the most successful season in a decade as proved by its stellar play, and the numerical statistics of the fast G. B. I. League. The sextet got off to a slow start due to its lack of confidence and experience but wound up the season in a blaze of glory by winning four of its last five league games. Only the loss of one game kept the Harrismen from a first place berth and a playoff position. Also the team played two victorious non-league games this year; one with Belmont Hill School, and one with Browne and Nichols. Belmont had the honor of placing four men—Dewire, McInnis, White, and Mather—on the all-star team. Others on the squad were: Fleming, Kelly, Levis, Brown, Harding, Winter, Esslinger, Toomey, McCoubrey, Dawson, Shedd, Ellis, and Wiggin.

Girls' Field Hockey

CAPTAIN JEAN MACAULAY led our field hockey team through a successful season, including victories over such formidable rivals as Winchester, Lexington and Concord.

Joanna Green held down the difficult center position on our fast forward line. She was ably supported by speedy Eleanor Greehan; Jean Macaulay and Stella Femino, two wings who will be hard to replace; and Alice Ryan and Pauline Glazier.

These girls were backed up by a strong defense consisting of goalie Marion Macaulay, who held off all opposition; a great pair of fullbacks, Peggy Carroll and Kay Comeau; Alice Porter, invaluable at center half; and Mary Crowell and Lura Williams, our two sophomore stars.

We can expect an equally successful season next year, for we still have many of our better players. Joanna Greene will be captain, and Eleanor Greehan, manager, for the coming season.

Track Team

LEDED BY CAPTAIN JACK MEAD the 1943 track team was really going places when this yearbook went to press. Coach Mel Wenner seemed dubious as to whether or not this year's speedsters would come through in the traditional Belmont style, and he was really pleased at the amazing showing our boys made at Concord, the first meet.

Returning men were Captain Jack Mead, Jack Adams, Will Tufts, Will Wheeler, "Rock" Giblin, Armando Boschetti, Dave Lyons, Ray Price and Newell Austin and Frank Kronenberg who left us for college and the army respectively. Other members of the squad included Ken McLeod, William Apt, Donald Maynard, Robert Brooks, Paul Rugg, Richard Kleber and William Abely as manager.

Baseball Team

DESPITE THE WAR the baseball team has gotten off to a great season. The team lost Dan Bulmer, John MacBride and Bill Martin to college and the war. Most of the veterans returned from last year. They include Mike Palm, Bill Dewire, Richard Roche, Joe Smith, Paul White, Richard Luetters, Steve Colonotto, and Warren Bazirgan. The team to date has won all its games and Polly Harris has hopes that we will again walk off with the State Championship. Other boys who are working hard are: Joe Elliott, Bill Toomey, Kenny Egan, William Brown and Paul Corcoran. There are also some promising young Sophomores: Joe King, Chester Harrington, and John Fleming. Coach Harris has seldom failed to put out a great team.

Coach

LEWIS HARRIS

The Golf Team

THE HIGH SCHOOL GOLF TEAM, captained by Clayton Clancy, will try to repeat last year's performance by winning the State Championship again. Although many players have been lost to the armed forces, and Mr. O'Connor, the coach, has left, the team shows good promise. Clayton Clancy semi-finalled in the National School-Boy Championship last year, and will again be number one man while his partner will be capable Billy Flynn. Francis Lombardo, Jack Wilson, Warren Ellis, and Daniel Shaughnessy comprise the rest of the team. All the boys have had enough experience in tournament golf and they should have another successful year.

Coach

DAVID O'CONNOR

CLAYTON CLANCY

Cross-Country Team

DURING the past two years, the Cross-Country squad has been extremely limited. Two years ago, it consisted of six men, but this year the squad increased by 33 per cent to eight men. Although literally overwhelmed by a mob of opposing contestants, our runners gave an excellent account of themselves at both the Arlington and Brookline meets.

Captain Newell Austin led the Belmont runners in both meets, and was always on the heels of the winner. The rest of the boys on the squad included Capt.-elect John DeSalvo, Paul Morse, George Blood, George Severance, Malcolm Rugvie, Alton Carr and John Hopkins.

With a larger squad and the same enthusiasm shown by the runners last fall, Belmont could easily have successful Cross-Country teams.

Sadie Hawkins Day

ON NOVEMBER 6, Sadie Hawkins Day, the staid halls of B. H. S. were transformed into the paths of Dogpatch, Kentucky.

None of us will ever forget that memorable day. Who could forget our prize-winners—Roger Merrill peeping coyly out from under his gorgeous plumed hat? Nancy Light prancing around in bright yellow, high-buttoned shoes? Marryin' Joe Campbell beaming down on "Daisy" Howe and "Lil" Dave?—for that matter who could forget the cider jugs or even Salomey, the pig?

Photographers from various Boston newspapers attended the dance and took pictures of the prize-winners. All in all, the day was a great success and a credit to the class of '43.

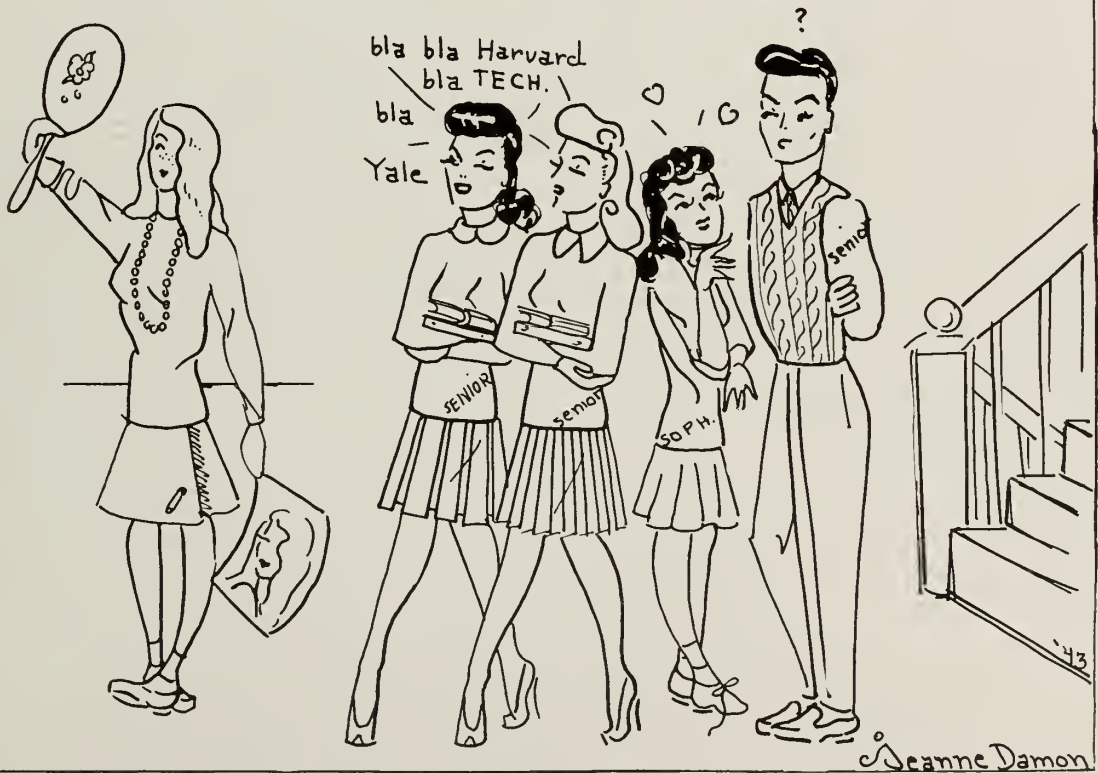

Senior Play

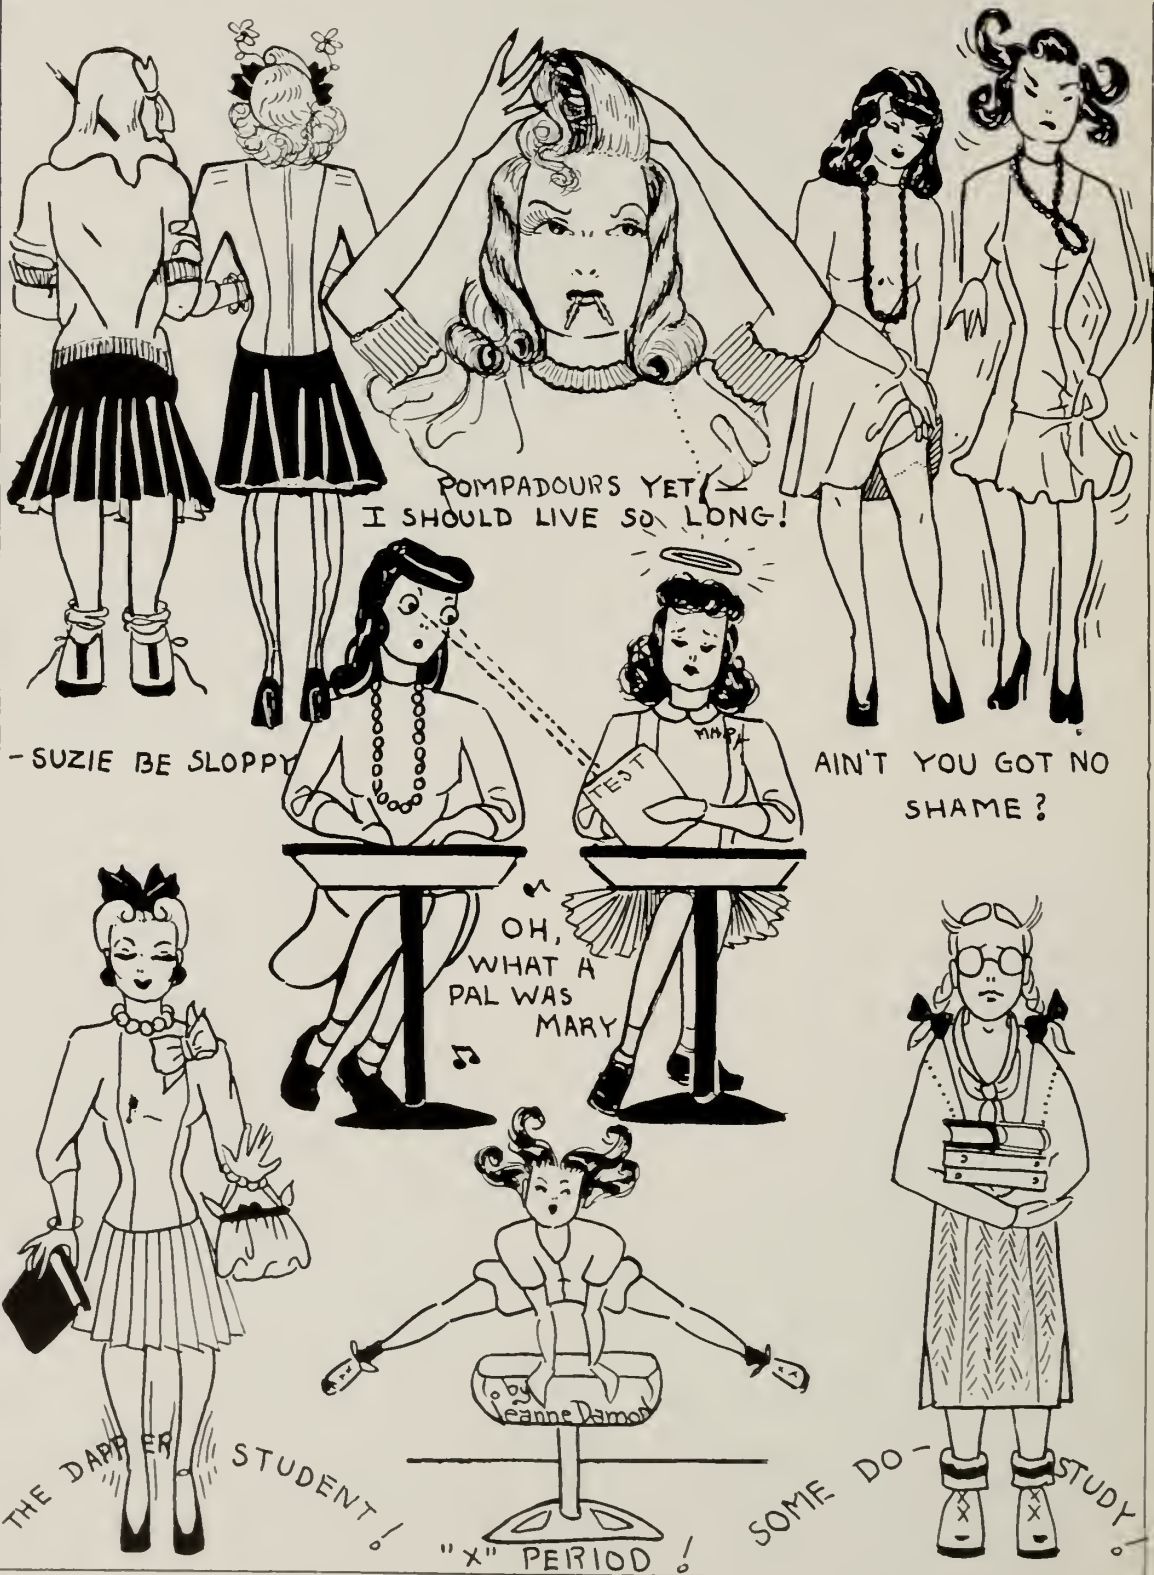

ON FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 20, Belmont citizens met in the High School auditorium for One Mad Night. This is not, however, quite as bad as one might think, for "One Mad Night" is merely the title of the play presented by this year's senior class. It was a comedy in three acts and was heartily enjoyed by the crowd who turned out for it.

The title was extremely appropriate for the plot leads the hero out to his country-home where, to his astonishment, he discovers that an insane asylum is housed under his roof. From then on anything can and does happen. Odd characters drift in and out, and laugh follows close upon the heels of laugh as the fast moving farce draws to its conclusion where everything is nicely settled.

Senior Class Banquet

THE SENIOR CLASS BANQUET was held on January 27th, earlier this year because many of the boys were about to enter the service. The turkey dinner was delicious and the music of Marvin Burgess superb. After dinner, Mr. Shipman and Mr. Shibbles addressed the class. They both expressed their belief and faith in the boys and girls as leaders and shapers of the future.

The highlight of the evening was, of course, the entertainment. Janet del Castillo as chairman of the banquet, assisted by Jack Adams, Dick Luetters, Dave Lyons, Greg Shorey, Joe Campbell, Bob Seaver, Dot Whiting, Marie Denish, and Nancy McCann won the enthusiastic applause of the entire class. The show was in the form of a radio broadcast, the various skits being very clever. Dick Luetters, Dot Whiting, and Robert Seaver did a take-off on the "soap box opera," and Nancy McCann gave a fascinating recipe. For one program, the audience was transported to Germany, via the imagination, where Joe "der Fuerher" Campbell gave a stirring oration. Probably the part most enjoyed by all was the trip to the "Nose Bowl" and the five charming specimens of feminine beauty. In the revealing garb of cheerleaders, "Queenie" Prelack, "Legs" Giblin, "Gypsy Rose" Brown, the exotic "Josephine" Smith, and "Sunya" Bazirgan literally brought down the house with their humorous antics. No one will ever forget their cartwheel cheer. It was out of this world.

Dancing concluded an extremely pleasant evening.
